

Introduction

This section provides legal information on the most important areas that affect a business. Information is provided on different areas of corporate law including tenancy agreements and the rights of the Landlord and Tenant. There can be many pitfalls in property law and this package aims to give an overview of the main points to consider.

Important features within a business lease, including length of term, rent and rent reviews and repairs as well as remedies for breaches of covenant are dealt with.

Limited Companies

The advantages of being a limited company and the associated responsibilities are given, together with share interests, appointment of Directors and their duties and statutory provisions.

Forming a Partnership

The procedure for forming a partnership and the legal implications of this are covered in this package as well as trading terms and conditions, credit control, small claims and procedures.

We have also compiled a list of useful address for your information.

